About A History of Aboriginal Health Workers and Aboriginal Community Workers in the NT 1870–2013

This timeline, A History of Aboriginal Health Workers and Aboriginal Community Workers in the NT 1870–2013, is a unique story telling and history machine, recording and celebrating the achievements of generations of NT Aboriginal Health Workers, child and family community workers and educators.

This timeline seeks to build up community and workforce capacity through recording people's own stories. This edition spans 143 years, from 1870–2013, from early NT colonisation to the present day in terms of health, community service and public policy. It honours the names and events that shaped both NT and Australia wide health and community services.

This timeline was developed by Kathy Abbott AHW and Rosie Elliott, arising out of their work together with the former Central Australian and Barkly AHW Association.

These stories are a living oral history, recorded as people informed us and as we heard and selected them. We asked people to tell us a year, an event and the names of significant people involved. Their stories have all the strengths, truths, errors, details and omissions of this approach. We have corrected some first edition entries and we ask you contact us to identify any others.

We are proud to record the many achievements of so many of those who played their part in this extraordinarily complex story, to remember and praise all those people who dared bridge so many cultural barriers.

These stories cover the community controlled services, mission and community control services and the departmental health services. It puts the pioneer NT Health Worker movement in the wider national context.

Whilst this story started as a history of the NT Aboriginal health workforce, it soon became clear it could not be easily separated from the community service stories, the family and children's services. As the work progressed, it also became clear that the Aboriginal education workforce

The Aboriginal Health Practitioner Cultural Statement below was developed as a broad response to the Aboriginal Health Worker Review 2009–2010.

The AHW Professional Review Report Implementation Committee, a partnership between the NT Department of Health and AMSANT (Aboriginal Medical Services NT), developed the following Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Health Practitioner Cultural Statement.

Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Health Practitioner Cultural Statement

This statement which was signed at a Aboriginal Health Practitioner Forum in October 2013 by Jeff Moffat, CEO of the NT Department of Health and John Paterson, CEO of AMSANT.

This statement seeks to promote workplace cultural diversity. These cultural security principles have been written into new job selection criteria both in the Department and other services. The way organisations use this statement to promote Aboriginal Health Workers in the workforce will grow over time.

Our culture defines who we are, how we think and feel, and how we make sense of the world. For health services to be effective in Aboriginal health they must operate in ways that both show understanding and respect for Aboriginal ways of organising and doing. ATSIPHS are central to this task of ensuring cultural understanding and respect.

Our commitment to Aboriginal health

We assert that ATSIPHS are central to improving Aboriginal Health and wellbeing outcomes and bring a unique strength based approach to health care service delivery in the NT.

The vast majority of ATSIPHS are recruited from the local communities in which they work. ATSIPHS therefore have community and cultural knowledge which makes their inclusion at the heart of the local health team vital for effective primary health care services in Aboriginal Communities.

ATSIPHS have been first contact clinical practitioners in Aboriginal communities in the NT for over 30 years. To consolidate this role they be actively supported to gain confidence and competence as clinicians and assisted to take up management positions in primary health care teams at every opportunity. To this end the partners agree:

- All health staff undertake initial cross-cultural orientation at commencement of employment and regular cultural training throughout their tenure
- All health services strive to be compliant with the principle of cultural safety.
- All ATSIPHS are encouraged and supported in addressing their individual workplace and professional and cultural responsibilities;
- That career pathways and succession plans are adopted in relation to all ATSIPHS;
- That the roles and responsibilities of non-Aboriginal health professionals working in Aboriginal health include the need to support ATSIPHS including trainees to build their clinical and professional capacities.

The Northern Territory Department of Health and the Aboriginal Community Controlled Health sector in the Northern Territory endorse the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Health Practitioner Cultural Statement and are committed to ongoing engagement as partners to ensure the statement remains active, valid, relevant and appropriate to the high value placed on the ATSIPHS working on our frontline.

The authors

Kathy Abbott and Rosie Elliott first started working together in 1995 with the Central Australian and Barkly Aboriginal Health Workers Association. The idea for this timeline and the very heart of these stories comes from Kathy. The listening, design and layout was by Rosie. A loving team.

Kathy Abbott AHW
Kathy was named co-patron of the Northern Territory 2011 Year of the Aboriginal Health Worker. At the 2011 launch celebrating the year, AMSANT chair said 'Kathy Abbott is an Arrernte woman of Central Australia. She is a trailblazer in Aboriginal health in Central Australia, being recruited by Trevor Cutler in the early 1970s. She was one of the first four Central Australian Aboriginal Congress' Aboriginal Health Workers, and went on to become a leading educator of non-Aboriginal Health Workers through the Health Department. Kathy remains active as one of the Territory's most senior Aboriginal Health Workers ... an inspiration to new members of the Aboriginal Health Worker profession...' Kathy was also the President of the Central Australian and Barkly Aboriginal Health Workers Association, Foundation Chair of the National Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Health Worker Association (NATSIHWA), coauthor of Rhetoric and Reality – a report on the roles and responsibilities of Aboriginal Health Workers of the NT, Clinic Practitioner and Health Educator and Wallace Rockhole Community NT, inaugural establishment and centre director for the Akeulerre Apmara Healing Centre (Alice Springs).

Rosie Elliott
Rosie is a director of Black Wattle Consulting. She develops resources, communications and organisational tools. Her previous work includes service and resource development with SNAICC, for the NT Department of Health and Community Services Office of Children and Families (Kids Tracks newsletters); AMSANT – Aboriginal Medical Services Alliance; the NT Remote Workforce Agency. From 1995–98 Rosie was EO for the Central Australian and Barkly Aboriginal Health Workers Association. Rosie has developed many resources for the Aboriginal health and family sectors eg Through Young Black Eyes Facilitators Guide, You're A Dad, SNAICC News, Kids Tracks Newsletter, Working With Families, National research tour report of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander child and family services.

The support

The Central Australian and Barkly Aboriginal Health Workers Association CABAHWA was the first ever professional association of AHWs. Established in 1995, it was a dynamic and professional group of Centralian AHWs, both departmental and community controlled. Its deliberations were expert, professional and complex. They were moving to become an NT-wide organisation. This professional association was funded through a visionary process by the federal General Practitioners Divisions, indicative of the strong professional relationship between NT doctors and AHWs. The association was defunded under the Howard government and folded in 1999. The insights and vision of this group have been borne out as time has passed. CABAHWA called for 'community selection of AHWs, on-the-job training on a living wage, workplace training support and literacy training, flexible employment policies, meaningful career structure recognition of cultural competencies, and Aboriginal health industry trainers. Kathy Abbott first suggested this timeline in her role as CABAHWA Chair. This poster honours CABAHWA in using their logo, as designed by a Johnny Brisco (No.1) led group in 1996.

Black Wattle Consulting have provided pro-bono support for timeline authors to develop this second edition, including online support and timeline distribution. Black Wattle Consulting develop print and online resources, based on community consultations, research, policy and graphic design, specialising in work with Aboriginal communities in parenting support; child and family; and health and disability; and workforce development.

David Ross, CEO of the Central Land Council for his advocacy of this project to Centrecorp and Viperyene Centre for funding for printing and consultation travel. Without his assistance this community development project would not have proceeded.

NT Medicare Local for their financial support for this workforce development initiative.

CARHDS CEO Raelene Beale, for the poster launch event.

AMSANT & Department of Health staff for their many contributions

The future of this work

The authors hope:

- there will be another update of this poster in another five years (2018), and
- you will send us your input and corrections;
- we can develop an online version where you can add your own stories and pictures and we will be seeking a sponsor for this project.
- that we can help AHWs/ATSIPHS in other states develop a similar project. We have a dream of a combined national poster arising from state projects, formed under the banner of the National Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Health Workers Association (NATSIHWA);
- that over time the authors may transfer copyright to a suitable NT AHW agency and we are open to discussions on this matter.

An incomplete list of practicing Aboriginal Health Workers & AHPs of the Northern Territory and the cross-border regions

The names of AHWs working in the NT and cross-border regions below were provided to us by our informants and from the records of annual reports of the Aboriginal Health Workers' Registration Board of the NT.

- Some of these AHWs remained in the profession for many years; others moved on to work in other areas, using their AHW skills;
- Some worked in a few communities, but names are only noted once;
- Some remote health services employed community selected AHWs but they do not become registered and their names may not appear;
- Some workED effectively as AHWs before Basic Skills registration;
- Many AHWs trained in the post Basic Skills period are not recorded as this timeline records more the early years of the AHW movement.

We are sorry if we have missed your name. We have left space under each region for you to add more as you remember them. If you get a fuller list of your community AHWs over the years, please email us for the next edition.
